JURY REPORT

The Jury of the 26th ALPE ADRIA philatelic exhibition “Tarvisio 2023” met from 20 to 22 September 2023. It duly assessed the 99 exhibits presented by 89 exhibitors belonging to the seven members of the Working group Alpe Adria Philatelie.

The Jury addresses a grateful tribute to the memory of Francesco Gibertini, who dedicated his enthusiasm for philately and his skills to making this exhibition happen, in his beloved Tarvisio.

The Jury congratulate the Unione delle Associazioni e dei Circoli Filatelici e Numismatici del Friuli Venezia Giulia. It also expresses its gratitude to all the entities that, with their support, made possible the organisation of this outstanding event.

In particular, its appreciation goes to the Municipality of Tarvisio that graciously made available the spacious Palazzetto dello Sport and to Slovenian Post and the Slovenian Philatelic Federation kindly made available most frames for this exhibition, in the framework of the spirit of cooperation which is at the base of the Working group Alpe Adria Philatelie.

The Jury thanks all exhibitors who made it possible to set up a show of high philatelic significance for the variety of subjects treated, the quality of philatelic material, and the strength of their engagement. The exhibits were assessed with friendly and constructive cooperation among the jurors, whose task was eased by those exhibitors who provided the scans of their exhibits in advance.

At large, the exhibits did not show any forged, faked or doubtful items in the random short assessment by the three jurors members of the AIEP, the International Association of Philatelic Experts. However, they recommend that exhibitors continue to pay suitable attention to this issue vis-à-vis the more sophisticated items produced with the most advanced digital technology.

One-frame exhibit awards are reported separately; however, they were judged in the corresponding competitive class according to the FIP guidelines.

All decisions were taken unanimously in the constructive and friendly atmosphere that makes the yearly Alpe Adria philatelic exhibition such a special philatelic event.

Finally, the Jury wishes the best success to the organisers of next year’s Alpe Adria philatelic exhibition.

Pierantonio Viotto, Postal Documents Udine's Province (Friuli 1850-1866)

this exhibition here in Tarvisio is not a common exhibition – it is something very special. The idea of Alpe-Adria crosses borders and joins together people in peace. This is very important here in Tarvis, where in the form of the three countries Austria, Slovenia and Italy the three great cultures of Slavic, Romanic and German language stick together. In the mountains surrounding us 100 years ago some of the most terrific battles were fought – and now we stay here in peace and friendship regardless of where we come from and which language we speak.

To document this great idea of Alpe-Adria, we dedicate a special Grand Prix to one collection that is not only outstanding in philately but demonstrates the idea of Alpe-Adria. This year, our choice was very easy because we have an exhibit that shows the development of the region where we are – Friuli Venezia Giulia – in a wonderful style. It's concentrated on the capital of this province and its environment. I know Udine as a nice city with an interesting and challenging history, but I didn't know you could find philatelic items of this high quality and rarity. Pierantonio Viotto has collected almost everything you can find from this Alpe-Adria-city: early usages of the first stamps, mixed frankings in any variety, a broad spectrum of documents: from the single letter to heavy letters, registered mail, formulars and heavy letters up to a 9-rate-printed matter. He leads us to the smallest villages with their rare postmarks, and he also crosses borders, showing us foreign mail.

Throughout the complete exhibit you find the idea of Alpe-Adria. The jury and the Organising-Committee congratulate Pierantonio Viotto for his outstanding exhibit and award to him the Grand Prix Alpe-Adria Tarvisio 2023.
